MODERNISE GLASGOW RED SQUARE

Radical proposals which could see one of Scotland's most famous public space torn down and rebuilt, this has attracted enormous response from some of the world's top designers. Glasgow City Council wants to give George Square a face lift in time for the Commonwealth Games. This redevelopment could see some of the Square's famous statues moved to other locations. Apparently there are only a few people who like the red tarmac!

THE OLDEST COM- MERCIALLY AVAILABLE RUM IN THE WORLD.

The limited edition golden rum has been released to mark 50 years of Jamaican independence. Encased in a hand crafted crystal decanter, only 800 bottles will be released making each £3,500 bottle a special addition to any drink connoisseur's collection.

RESTAURANT@METROPOLITAN 10TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

The popular restaurant in the heart of the Merchant City, opened its doors a decade ago and has gone on to win a string of accolades to consolidate its position at the top of Glasgow's dining sector.

It has a brand new menu which is a must to try. Sample items like: chef's soup of the day; coriander and ginger crab cakes; home smoked duck breast; breaded goats cheese, red onion and fig compote and more...
